Another report, however, states Herr Heineke will confer with Bourgeois party leaders for the purpose of attempting to form a coalition government made up of clericals, Democrats and members of the German people's party which would command 150 votes against 150 held by the two Socialist factions.

HEAVY DAMAGE IN OHIO FROM ELECTRIC STORM

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—A severe electrical storm that caused property damage running into thousands of dollars swept over western and southwestern Ohio late yesterday afternoon. So far, no one could be heard of as injured. At Washington, C. H., a tragedy was avoided by half an hour. When the storm struck the grand stand at the baseball park collapsed. Thirty minutes before the stand had been crowded with visitors to the park. The stand had been entirely emptied before the wind came. In Cincinnati the storm swept from the northwest and was especially severe in Glendale, Hartwell, Pleasant Ridge, Norwood and neighboring communities north of Cincinnati. A bolt of lightning struck electric feed wires leading from Cincinnati to Mount Washington on the bridge over the Little Miami river. The iron work of the bridge became heavily charged and more than 50 automobiles were forced to await arrival of a repair crew before a safe crossing could be made. Springfield experienced a heavy storm. Trees were uprooted and farm dwellings near the city demolished. Telephone and telegraph service was crippled for several hours. The storm also was felt at Hagerstown and other points.

Canadian Press Comment Favorable To Harding

MONTREAL, June 14.—Canadian people of the United States may expect papers today devoted considerable space to comment on the nomination of Senator Warren G. Harding for president of the United States and in general this comment favored his candidacy. "Mr. Harding has a good reputation for no other reason than that, though his public record and he illustrates to be responsible for his choice before the will win, because the party will unite behind him. Under Harding the people of his countrymen."

MILLION DOLLARS IN DAMAGES DEMANDED

NEW YORK, June 14.—Suit for $1,000,000 damages was filed in federal court here today by attorneys for Gaston B. Means against District Attorney Edward Swann and Assistant District Attorney John T. Dooling.

The complaint charges the defendants with conspiring with officials of the Northern Trust Company of Chicago "to bribe and corrupt witnesses" to testify falsely against the plaintiff in his trial for murder of Mrs. Maud A. Robinson King and to defeat probate of the alleged last will of James C. King, of Chicago, her husband.

The alleged bribery and corruption is said to have been practiced during the trial of Means at Concord, N. C. Means, who served as business agent for Mrs. King was acquitted. The complaint charges by Swann and Dooling "to convict the plaintiff of the crime of murder, have him executed or incarcerated and failing in this design, as they did, to bring about an atmosphere through false and malicious information furnished to the press by said defendants as would have the effect of discrediting the plaintiff as a witness in the trial of the probate of the will in the city of Chicago, the ultimate object of said conspiracy to be to defeat the probate of the said King will." This will disposed of a $1,000,000 estate.

Albanian Leader Is Slain

PARIS, June 14.—Essad Pasha, head of the Albanian delegation in Paris and former provisional president of Albania, was assassinated here today. Three shots were fired at him by an Albanian student, two of which took effect.

Essad Pasha was emerging from the Hotel Continental in the rue de Castiglione, when he was suddenly confronted by a young man, who later gave the name of Hussein Areni, and said he was an Albanian student. Without uttering a word Hussein fired two shots which struck Essad Pasha in the chest and another shot which went wild. Essad sank to the ground. He was picked up and taken to his room where he died shortly afterwards. The assassin was arrested by a soldier. He told the police he arrived in Paris on May 31 and declared the crime was not premeditated. Recognizing Essad Pasha on the street, he held him to be responsible for the sufferings of Albania. He said he felt a sudden impulse and fired the shots. Hussein termed Essad "the Albanian dictator."

G. O. P. Party Chiefs Eager For Battle

CHICAGO, June 14.—Declaration by Amos Pinchot, member of the committee of 48, that there positively would be a new party presidential candidate in the field, rumors that Senator La Follette would head a ticket as presidential candidate, and announcement that the campaign in behalf of Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential nominee, would be started promptly were the outstanding developments following the Republican national convention.

The statement by Mr. Pinchot declared that the "Republican party has driven out of representation in its councils the millions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and Taft and that the new party will represent these voters and present a definite and constructive program." Reports concerning Senator La Follette's possible candidacy were less clearly defined and in some instances were linked with declarations made in behalf of the committee of 48.

Harry M. Daugherty, pre-convention campaign manager for Senator Harding, began campaigns for the presidential nomination by requesting the national committee to take "prompt, snappy and energetic action" in placing the merits of the Republican issues before the voters of the country.

Party managers, it was said, will start the campaign soon after the Democratic convention is held and would not wait until Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge are officially notified of their nomination. When H. Hayes, re-elected chairman by the new National Committee, was out of town today, resting after his strenuous days during the convention. The members of the new executive committee of whom seven will be women, will be named without delay by Chairman Hayes. A vice chairman of the executive committee, who will be a woman, will be selected, at the time the committee is announced.

The resolution passed in the final minutes of the convention, forecasts a change in the representation of the League of Nations party from southern states at future national conventions. The resolution offered by former Congressman Paul Howard, of Ohio, provides that the appointment of delegates to conventions shall be in proportion to the Republican votes cast in the states. Testimony before the national committee ten days ago in its examination of claims of conflicting delegations from several southern states, showed certain delegates reported only a small constituency as compared to delegates from other sections of the country. The resolution, which was passed unanimously notwithstanding the eloquent protests from delegates from Louisiana, Alabama and Texas, provides "that in order to effect proper and necessary changes in the appointment of delegates in proportion to the Republican votes regularly cast throughout the various states, and in order to inspire a greater effort to effect and maintain suitable party organizations in all the states, the national committee notwithstanding any rule heretofore adopted, is directed within 12 months to adopt a just and equitable basis of representation in future national conventions. The basis shall be set forth in the call for the next convention and be binding upon all other future conventions until otherwise ordered."

About the time the party managers began their real activities, the senate committee, investigating campaign funds will resume hearings, holding its first session in Chicago, July 7, while the committee has been authorized to extend its investigations. Senator Keaton, its chairman, said no plans had yet been made to inquire into campaign funds up to election day.

Pitiable That U. S. Has Not Ratified League Of Nations, Gompers Tells Federation

MONTREAL, June 14.—It is "pitiable" that the United States has not ratified the League of Nations, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared here today in an address before the federation's convention. If the league convention were submitted to the American people "without any other embarrassing questions, it would be overwhelmingly accepted," he said.

"It is pitiable that the United States has not ratified the League of Nations," said Mr. Gompers, "but has forgotten the efforts of the millions of the world to prevent another horrible conflict such as that which started six years ago." International organization of the world's labor workers to further their aims and prevent another world war, was advocated by J. W. Ogden, fraternal delegate of the British trade union congress. Mr. Ogden, however, warned the federation that it must ignore any "international" similar to that formed in Russia and other countries.

NEITHER SATISFACTION NOR DISAPPOINTMENT SHOWN

LONDON, June 14.—Warren G. Harding's personality and record, long well known here, newspaper comment this morning expressed neither satisfaction nor disappointment with the Republican choice of a presidential candidate. Several newspapers refer to him as a "dark horse" and later from cables reports to represent a compromise. Two of three journals assume the result of the Chicago convention has opened the possibility of the election of a Democrat in the presidency, which of late has been regarded here as extremely improbable. Among those taking this view are the London Times and the Daily News, the latter telling the Democrats, "the fact that the process will not be easy, but that they can play it to personal honor in spite of everything." The feature of the League of Nations, affirmatively based upon three times and of British-American relations which are common to us, is points much discussed in the press. The Morning Post, which is a stern opponent of the league, says: "The sagacity of the Republican platform is a politician not an idealist, and may commend him to the American people who showed no marked liking for being governed by hands. We have faith in the American elect from Mount Sinai" and predicts.

"RESORT SPECIAL" IN HEAD ON COLLISION

CHICAGO, June 14.—One man was killed and a score or more injured today when the Pere Marquette "resort special" bringing week-end parties from Michigan summer resorts, crashed head on into an east bound freight train in the South Chicago freight yards.

The dead man is George Balema, of Grand Rapids, Mich., conductor of the passenger train. Railroad officials say some one left a switch open, allowing the freight train to run in on the west bound main track, directly in front of the passenger train.

Human Progress Must Be Built On Golden Rule

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—All human progress must be built on the golden rule, Dr. W. O. Thompson said yesterday in his baccalaureate sermon at Ohio State University. Referring to application of the golden rule in economic relations, he said that at one time it was thought the rule had no place in business. "This belief rapidly is being proved a fallacy," he said. The human factor is the biggest factor, he said, adding that selfishness in this direction hinders progress at all times and is but another form of war.

May Throw Out Walter Brown's Declaration

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—Whether the petition of Walter F. Brown, Toledo, who filed for the Republican nomination for United States senator without accompanying his papers with the filing fee, will be held legal, may be decided today by clerical of State Smith. Doubt has been cast on the petition by some officials.

Predict Colby As Mouthpiece For President

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14.—Hulburge Colby, secretary of state, was discussed today as a possible spokesman for President Wilson at the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco. The ticket, headed by Mr. Colby, according to official returns from the city-wide primary announced today by John B. Colpoys, secretary of the central Democratic committee, won by an overwhelming majority over the so-called Bryan Democratic ticket. The vote for the Colby ticket was 2,565, against 336 for the opposition.

Because of Mr. Colby's relatively short residence in Washington, the opposing delegation made strenuous opposition to the inclusion of his name. The district delegation, including 12 members with half a vote each, will go to San Francisco unopposed. He will make an effort to have included in the party a plank for enfranchisement for the District of Columbia.

Man Assaults Wife, Then Takes Poison; Will Recover

ASHLAND, June 14—An unsuccessful attempt at suicide by drinking carbolic acid was made by Dan Kenner yesterday. The attempt to kill himself was made by Kenner after he had frightfully injured his wife in an attack growing out of domestic troubles. Kenner is at present in the county jail and his injured wife is at home under the care of a physician. The wounds caused by the carbolic acid are the most serious and are causing her the most suffering, but it is thought that she will recover. Her throat is a mass of scratches and her face is black and blue from the result of choking. She has one large cut over her left eye and a number of deep cuts on her head.

This attack occurred in the room occupied by the couple over the Day and Night Bank on Sixteenth and Washington. Upon examining the room later in the day large pools of blood were found on the floor, with blood also splashed on the walls and smeared over the bed clothes.

Several persons heard Mrs. Kenner's screams and cries for help. Officer Pfaffenberger was the first on the scene and found Kenner lying gasping on the floor, but his wife had already run out of the building and had gone to the home of her parents. By this time several men had gathered in the room. A doctor and an ambulance were called and Kenner was taken to the King's Daughters' hospital. It is stated he will recover.

How You Profit By The Certain-teed Dealer Policy

Certain-teed broke away from an old tradition in the paint business when they adopted the policy of selling to any dealer anywhere. This plan is fairer to you.

In the first place, the Certain-teed policy saves you money. Instead of exclusive agencies which control prices within certain limits and which are more costly to operate, Certain-teed established a fair competitive system and at the same time made it possible for dealers to do business on a smaller investment, and still receive fair pay for their work. This naturally helps to maintain lower prices.

In the second place, the Certain-teed plan has developed a large number of conveniently located dealers for your service. Certain-teed is to be found in every community.

But more important even than these advantages is Certain-teed quality. Certain-teed Paints are superior in every way. They contain only the best ingredients, ground and mixed by machinery that makes no mistakes. Any reliable dealer can get Certain-teed Paints or Varnishes for you quickly from a nearby Certain-teed distributing center.

Causes a Sensation
Rev. Ira W. Stout, pastor of the Christian church of Jackson, continues to hold his place on the first page in local news. Some months ago he bought the Herald, and became its editor, and the local Democratic leader, although up to that time, his political affiliations had not attracted any particular attention. A little later he was appointed a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Now he has flung his hat into the ring as a candidate for representative. He has no opposition in his own party, and will thus become the opponent of Hon. Daniel Alban, who is a candidate for reelection as a Republican, and is just as dry as Stout.

Heat ALL Your House THROUGH ONE REGISTER

Yes, it's just as possible in your home as it has been in fifty thousand others. You, too, may have every room comfortable with balmy healthful heat, reaching every corner by Nature's method of circulation—and all through only one register! It isn't necessary to clutter up your house with pipes, overheat your cellar and incur big bills—not when you can get the

The Original Patented Pipeless Furnace

It can be set up in a day, without inconvenience to you, and will make your home so comfortable in the severest winter weather you will be well repaid.

Your house will be uniformly warm; your cellar will be just right for the storage of fruits and vegetables. Your fuel bill will be less than with stoves that heat only a part of your house.

HERE ARE THE REASONS

The Caloric is the Original Patented Pipeless Furnace—the result of the study of competent engineers to solve the heating problem in the most satisfactory way. That they have succeeded is proved by the fact that the number of Caloric units sold is an absolute barometer of satisfaction in these times greater than any other pipeless furnace.

The cause of this satisfaction lies in the scientific and exclusive principle that circulates the Caloric from all rooms. It is not a pipe furnace provided with an extra cooling coil or coils in the basement in the manner of a pipe furnace. Get a copy of the book "Program," which tells the full story about pipeless heating. If you can't come in, write for it.

Come In And See Us

We will show you what these principles are, and you will then see what Caloric means. Why it is always successful and why installation cannot be accomplished the same results. Then you will be in no danger of being an inferior article, with all the disadvantages in later months. Get a copy of the book "Program," which tells the full story about pipeless heating. If you can't come in, write for it.

TOBACCO HABIT DANGEROUS

says Doctor Conner, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health today were it not for the deadly drug nicotine. Stop the habit now before it is too late. It is a simple process to break the habit of the tobacco habit in any form. Just as in any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets. Take them as directed and in the period of three to five days the nicotine habit will be broken. The money if they fail to cure to read large and interesting exposures issued by Doctor Conner soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the dangers of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. Miss Lucille Adams has returned to her home in Sciotoville after a few days visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Kincaid.

Children's Day was fittingly observed Sunday evening at the Baptist church, a large audience enjoying the program which proved quite interesting. The church was made beautiful with cut flowers, ferns and flags which served as decorations, which added much to the enjoyment of the program. Much praise is due Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Cline who have been directing the children for the occasion. The success of the program.

Drowned the Cookies.
Our neighbor's small son was well bed and he never asked for things to eat at our house. The other day he came into the kitchen just as I had spread the last of a batch of cookies on the table. The sight of so many and their delicious smell almost overcame his manners. For he said, "Cookies are one thing that have never disagreed with me yet." He got the two largest in the batch.—Chicago Tribune.

CONVENTION WAS HARDING'S FROM START, SAY GOODEN AND JACKSON

"The convention was Harding's from the start," said John H. Jackson and William Gooden, two local colored men who attended the Republican national convention in Chicago, upon their return to Portsmouth Sunday afternoon. "Harding was the second choice of hundreds from the start," Jackson said.

"and the landslide to the Ohio man, which came, breaking the deadlock on the ninth ballot, was really the expression of the desires of the delegates. Senator Harding was the biggest man at the convention. His name was upon every lip from the first as the most logical man to break the deadlock."

"Former Governors Willis and Herrick deserve great credit, together with Harry M. Daugherty, for the nomination of the Ohio man, Governor

Willis's nominating speech was one of the finest ever heard and was without a doubt the superior of every one made at this convention.

"Senator Harding's personality had a great deal to do with his nomination. He is greatly liked and a prime favorite among the Republicans of the country."

were condemned in resolution presented at the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor here today. The resolution was proposed by R. C. Cashman, of Cleveland, in behalf of the International Switchmen's Union.

Mr. Cashman charged that a number of central bodies throughout the country had aided switchmen during the unauthorized strike by raising strike funds and furnishing them with meeting halls.

The striking railroad men, he pointed out, were members of yardmen's association which were not affiliated with the federation and were members of a rival organization. They should not have received labor's support, the resolution said. As the constitution of the federation does not provide for any punishment for such action, Mr. Cashman urged that the labor bodies in question be condemned and warned not to aid any similar strike in the future.

The International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union today was pressing its fight to have the federation urge the release of all political prisoners and the repeal of the Espionage act. The resolution would have organized labor's protest against "further useless and inhuman incarceration of socialists and decent their immediate release as well as complete restoration to the freedom of the press, assembly and association without any restrictions, qualifications or judicial interpretation in order to attain these ends which aim at the re-establishment of the sovereignty of the constitution of the United States over the capitalist class.

The central labor conference body of New York, which is backing the resolutions, has placed before the delegates a statement declaring that from April 1, 1917, to February 28, 1920, there were 15,291 men imprisoned as political prisoners, conscientious objectors and military offenders.

"We feel that through general amnesty and repeal of the war time laws, we can wipe out the war time animosities and by that regain our peace at home," said the statement.

(Continued from Page One) conscience, and if we appeal to it we must come into court with clean hands."

The Express believes that friendly relations with Great Britain will undoubtedly be part of Mr. Harding's policy.

PARIS, June 14.—Few newspapers in this city venture to comment on the action of the Republican national convention at Chicago, although they all devote considerable space to the nomination.

"It is a triumph of the machine of the party organization or its bosses over personalities sufficiently powerful or well supplied with funds to be in a position to appeal directly to the nation," declares L'Echo de Paris.

In examining the platform of the Republican party, L'Echo de Paris pays special attention to the possible reconstruction of the Panama controversy and the Canadian road question.

This posture relative to England and Canada he finds to be a certain extent symptomatic but he adds: "We need not fear that such an attitude will degenerate into abstention from European affairs or hostility toward Europe. Too many elements of the Republican party are bound up in our affairs and our preoccupations."

The newspaper comments on the fact that Mr. Harding is an intimate friend of Warren G. Harding, former United States ambassador to France and a real friend of this country. The paper in a leading editorial of more than a column this afternoon tells of the nomination of Warren G. Harding of Ohio for the presidency of the United States by the Republican convention at Chicago, and cites extracts from the Republican platform regarding the League of Nations.

The newspaper says it hopes that the meeting at the Hague may create in Paris an impression which the United States can interpret in maintaining the peace of Europe.

Harding Tendered Rousing Reception On Arrival At Capital

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, Republican presidential nominee, was back at his desk in his office at the capital today. Accompanied by Mrs. Harding, his secretary, George Christian, and a small group of senators, he arrived here a few minutes after midnight and went directly to his home on Wyoming avenue. While the boy Scout band of Old City, Pa., sounded a rousing welcome, the senator and his party made their way through the cheering crowd at the station, pausing just long enough for two flash-light photographs to be taken, an incident that was repeated upon his arrival at his home.

Senator Harding told the Associated Press he would remain in Washington about a week. He expected to be busy for a day or two cleaning up the business he accumulated as senator, but the coming of Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, will force him immediately into the part assigned to him by the convention. He will confer with Mr. Hays and his political managers, with the idea of getting his campaign under way at once, although formal nomination of his nomination will not be received by him until he returns to his home at Marion, Ohio.

Congratulations upon his nomination continued to reach Senator Harding at his office, while at his home Mrs. Harding was the recipient of numerous enthusiastic messages from friends and their personal friends.

Parades taken when the nominee cycle policemen and close behind came to his home in the city. Many of the neighbors had service men.

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—Will you please print this in your column. The lady that wanted Harry Angely address can get in touch with him by addressing him General Delivery, Cleveland, O. His mother has serious sickness and could not answer his card.

A SUBSCRIBER.
Dear Dolly—Which will be worn most this summer, plumes, or or-bards.
Gingham will be worn as much as usual. Organza is always good for warm weather.

Dear Miss Wise—I have just graduated and my parents want me to go to work. Do you think they ought to do this? They want me to teach and I don't care anything about teaching and will never take an interest in such work. I don't want to do office work either.

A GRADUATE.
Your parents are not unreasonable in wanting you to work. They should, however, allow you to select your own vocation. Office work has such a wide scope that you ought to be able to find something you would enjoy doing. Do not have the mistaken idea that work is beneath you. Girls from all classes are going to work now days. The women of today refuse to be idle, and if they haven't a home to take care of they seek occupation in the business world.

Dear Dolly—I have been going out with a boy for several months and in all that time he has never gone with any other girl until lately and he quit me and started taking different girls around. Won't you please tell me how I can regain his friendship? Do you think he is lying to me?

BEFORE EYES.
The best way to get the boy back is not to care apparently that he has dropped you. Speak to him when you meet as if you did not notice his neglect, but do not start conversation with him or take any interest in him. Go with other boys if they ask you and probably jealousy will make him return to you. Youth is so fickle that it is probable he is tiring of you tired of you. In case he does not come back in within a reasonable time give him up and enjoy others.

Dear Dolly—My hair is thin and full of dandruff. What will help make it grow?
HESLIE.

Vaseline is one of the best hair growers, and will help to get rid of dandruff.
It depends on the dryness of the scalp how often the vaseline should be applied. Once or twice a week, however, should be often enough.
Make a part straight from the front to the back of the head and rub the vaseline in thoroughly. Be careful not to let it get on the hair itself. When you have finished that part of the scalp, make another part, and continue thus until you have massaged the whole head.

Dear Miss Wise—Is it proper for a girl to propose in leap year?
IN DOUBT.

No, that is merely a traditional privilege. A better way is to manipulate the young man that he will do the proposing.

SOCIETY

An interesting engagement and coming marriage was announced Friday evening at the home of Miss Nau Foley, 1230 Grandview avenue, when it was made known that Miss Edna Griner will wed Mr. Donald Davies sometime in the month of June. The rooms were made festive with roses, pink and white, which carried out the color scheme.

During the early hours, games and music were enjoyed, after which the guests were lured to the dining room, which was a bower of pink rambler roses. The table decorations gave signs of an unusual event. The places were marked with rose-decorated cards to blend with the lovely bouquet of pink roses in the center. It did not take long to find the secret in the nuptials, tied with pink and white ribbons, containing the names "Griner-Davies, June, 1920." A miniature bride marked the place of Miss Griner, upon whom all showered congratulations. Delicate pink candles gave a glow to the table, where delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in the colors of pink and white, with small pink baskets of nuts. The invited guests were: Misses Edna Griner, Berlin and Nell Griner, Mrs. Ray Griner, Mrs. Otto Blair, Misses Nell Wendelken, Lena Duweil, Jennie Hollenbeck, Maude Hockwell, Louise Egbert, Mabel Tracy, Mary Goldcamp and Julia Nickel.

Miss Griner is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Griner, 1324 Park avenue, and is one of the popular teachers at the Highland school.

Mr. Davies is the son of Mrs. Charles Haiscoe of Seventeenth street and is employed by the Whitaker-Glossner Company, having a host of friends.

Miss LeMonne Jackson of Second street left Sunday for Cincinnati, where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leit, formerly of Fifth street. Mr. Leit is doing construction work on the farm at Cincinnati.

The charming party announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Resa Goodson and Mr. John Dalton was given Friday evening by Miss Sadie Turner and Mrs. Lee R. Turner, at their home, 1312 Fifth street. The wedding will be an event of July 12.

A number of friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hein, of Franklin Boulevard, Sunday, to congratulate them on the graduation of their daughter, Florence, from the local High School Thursday. Refreshments were served to many friends.

MARY PICKFORD in "Pollyanna"

Mary Pickford Plays the "Glad Girl" in "Pollyanna" at the Temple Theatre Tonight and Tomorrow

"The Yellow Typhoon," Harold McGrath's Famous Story, Featuring Anita Stewart Opens the Columbia's Summer Season at the Sun Theatre Today (Monday)

There's a sting of ear, bright light in every great city that circles the globe. In "The Yellow Typhoon" these are all around the world lights. The story from New York to London, Paris, Rome, Monte Carlo, Berlin, Shanghai, Manila and back to New York again.

The remarkable story, starring Anita Stewart in a dual role, is Harold McGrath's greatest adventure tale. The National attraction which will be shown by the Columbia at the Sun Theatre for four days, starting to day.

Story of Two Sisters

It is the story of two sisters, one self-centered, who is willing to sell her own soul for the pleasure of a man, intelligent, but heartless and ruthless, who leaves a wake of misery in her path, willing to do anything to satisfy her lust of power. The other, who will win through to the hearts of her friends and gain her own sister for her country.

The picture carries you into every vicissitude of life, the simple home, the purity and sweetness of people, of the big city and it carries you through the swirl of the brilliant life of those who live only for pleasure and excitement.

Action in Every Foot

It is a picture with action in every foot of it. There is not a single moment when you are not kept on your toes with suspense and wonder as to what is going to happen next. And Anita Stewart in the two roles has done the greatest work of her screen career.

She switches from one scene to another with remarkable facility, first as the self-centered, who is willing to sell her own soul for the pleasure of a man, intelligent, but heartless and ruthless, who leaves a wake of misery in her path, willing to do anything to satisfy her lust of power. The other, who will win through to the hearts of her friends and gain her own sister for her country.

In the final fade-out.

There is a depth of feeling in this picture that has never been shown in any other production. Miss Pickford puts all the delicate shading into her work that only a great artist is capable of. She often carries her audience to a tear and then suddenly snaps the tension by a bit of quaint, laugh-provoking comedy.

For Tonight, The Eastland Theatre Presents The Year's Most Beautiful Photoplay — Katherine MacDonald In "The Turning Point" A Romance of Glorious Womanhood—Extra Added Feature — Larry Semon In "Passing The Buck"

The year's loveliest photoplay. That is what the Eastland theatre will present tonight in the showing of Katherine MacDonald, the American Beauty in her latest picture "The Turning Point", an adaptation of Robert W. Chambers' famous novel. The screen adaptation of this great novelist's gripping tale gives Miss MacDonald a role similar to her own life history.

"The Turning Point" is a thrilling story of the struggle made by a financially ruined society beauty to gain a living for herself and sister and against moral ruin threatened by an old man who desires her for her unusual charm and attractions. Diana Tennant wins against all these odds and the great American Beauty enhances the writer's famous novel. This photoplay was photographed in one of California's famous beauty spots, with a beautiful story and the screen's most beautiful star it is a delight to mind and eye. An extra added feature of tonight's program will offer the finest man in the movies, Larry Semon, in one of his funniest comedies entitled "Passing the Buck." Anita Stewart is shown in practically two characters in "Mind the Paint Girl," a First National feature which will be shown at the Strand tonight. Full of ambition to get out of the sordid neighborhood and to win to the better things of life, she takes the opportunity of her father's death to move. Then she applies for a place on the stage. Then through the accidental killing of a bucket of paint, she gets an inspiration, and suggests

At The Exhibit Tonight—William Fox Presents Madeline Travers in "Rose of the West" A Vivid, Thrilling Drama of Northern Wilds—A Big Picture Full of Action.

A play which, it is said thrills with vital human interest will be shown at the Exhibit tonight with Madeline Travers as the star. It is called "Rose of the West" and is described as a vivid photoplay of the northern wilds. The scenes are laid in a country that is visited only occasionally by Indians and the patrol of the Northwest mounted police.

The story is that of a brave woman who fights against the plan of her brutal husband to sell their daughter for a gold field he has secretly discovered. At one point the husband, absent for several years, is supposed to be dead, and Miss Travers, as Rose Labelle, is about to marry the heart of the mounted police, when her husband reappears. The situations are described as intensely dramatic and full of suspense. "Rose of the West" is declared to be the strongest play in which this beautiful and talented star has appeared.

ONE TOUCH OF PITY

THEY say that the "one touch of pity" is the only thing that can save a man from the village of the village. It is the only thing that can save a man from the village of the village.

No wonder that the word came that preparations were begun to send Portsmouth to the village of the village.

There is a certain amount of pity in the event. It will, however, be of little or no use. There is the other preparation, sometimes rather extreme and obstinate, between village and country or city. There is neither justification nor reason for this. The different divisions of a country stand for nothing, except legal fictions, to all intents and purposes they are one. Certain it is that their fortunes are one. None can profit without all sharing therein; none can suffer without everyone feeling the pain. They are interdependent. If the land yields bounteous crops, the city feels the quickening pulse of trade; if the city grows the farm finds the better marketing place. With nothing produced from the soil about her, Portsmouth would be an impossible place to live; with no Portsmouth market the place would be lacking and the fields would become brown and dead.

Pity for the calamity impending over Barden basted us to her rescue, but let us know that brotherhood is not alone in being helpful in hour of peril, but at all times being kind and neighborly.

AS TO WHO SAYS IT

SENATOR BORAH told the Johnson delegates at Chicago, in public speech, that he would support neither Wood nor Lowden if nominated, his objection to the one being the same as to the other, the vast sums raised and expended to promote their nomination.

Considering that the man to whom he gave his support, and he is an extremist, we are rather surprised at the senator. He isn't logical, for Johnson had no mean purse behind him and if he didn't have more, as much as either Wood or Lowden, it was purely because he didn't have the rich friends to come across with bunches and bales.

But the Idahoan isn't ever logical, he is only violent and courageous. For any other person of prominence to say what he did would mean nothing; that is, nothing more than a foolish bit of political talk. With Borah, however, it is different. He isn't afraid to say beforehand what he is going to do, neither does he find pretext for eating his words afterwards. His declaration, therefore, was one that caused consternation, it being known that it wasn't a bluff, but a vehement statement of what was going to occur should a certain other event occur.

Yes, while Borah is an extremist he is immeasurably superior, even in his mistakes, to the average politician.

LOST IN THE SHUFFLE

NOTHING plunk, like that on prohibition, was lost between the committee room and convention hall, when the platform was reported Friday.

That is altogether singular, because big indifference, one that politicians most highly appreciate. This time it was one offered by a lot of professional Irishmen, who pledged one million votes if it were accepted.

But it was the old story, the Irish were divided between themselves. For while the faction with the one million votes in cold storage had one proposition, another had a different and more violent one, which may account for the absent mindedness of the committee.

Probably, nine people out of ten, in at least a vague sort of way, sympathize with the irrepressible desire of Ireland to be rid of the domination of England, but the unfortunate fact is that violence and division of leadership repels sympathy from activity that would be of some effect. It is among the probabilities, for instance, that had the Republican platform committee been requested to incorporate an endorsement of the struggle of the Irish for freedom, it would have hearkened to the same form of expression, but when two furiously clashing divisions presented requests, one practically a declaration of war against Great Britain, the committee washed its hands of the whole matter, quite a natural thing to do under the circumstances.

Now that it is all over we understand better about the leaderless and unbalanced convention. It was managed and managed instead. Notice, it was narrated far down in the story that the managers having so and so agreed the convention so and so performed. What's the use of commencing, nothing can run, that is nothing in politics, without a head.

We notice one of the candidates filing for senator is named Violet. It isn't likely he is as sweet as the shrinking blossom of that name, but it can be set down that he will be shown, not only shrinking, but actually shriveling when the votes are counted.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

LINDSEY TELLS ALL HER TROUBLES TO DAD

I have not promised anything to Dad, but I take a peculiar pleasure in the thought that at any time, under any circumstances, anywhere I can fly to him. That's a pretty nice thought, isn't it? I'm a jolly good thing, but the world can't read the heart's most thoughts of me, eh?

After a feverish night, passed in that abominably stuffy room, and on an uncomfortable bed, I arose, heavy-eyed and discontented with the world in general and myself in particular. I dressed, and went down to breakfast. There's one place more ordinary than our family breakfast table! Glad to have disordered this, as it makes me more contented with our. Yikes!

The family is quite old-fashioned. It breakfasts at eight o'clock, sharp. Disgusting hour, when the human mind is sluggish and the human eyes are not as yet properly opened. How I hated everything as I sat down to some heavy porridge and a gloomy silence. A traditional silence, I should say. Light! All the hullabaloo downstairs down at me from their places on the built-up stairs, in a way well calculated to take away the most hopeful appetite. And worst offense of all, the coffee was bad.

You are able to imagine my undisciplined joy when the bell rang, bringing each other member of the family to the table.

WHO'S WHO In The Days News

MOE CERRETTI

Interest is keen in the pope's appointment of a diplomatic representative to France, following the resumption of the old relationship, arrangements for which were begun by the Abbe Doulet and completed by Gabriel Guillaud.

French representative at the ratification of the armistice of June 22, 1919, at Arc. Since M. Guillaud's return home French interests at the Vatican have been in the hands of M. Jannet, who will continue as chargé until France makes a permanent selection.

It is perhaps because of France's delay in naming this official that no announcement has come from the pope as to his choice, though it is taken for granted that the honor will be bestowed upon Mgr. Cerretti, papal secretary of state for extraordinary affairs.

A relatively young man, Archbishop Cerretti has an international reputation as a diplomat of wide knowledge and stands high in the papal hierarchy. He has traveled in all parts of the world, has served with the apostolic delegation in Washington, been apostolic delegate to Australia, and was recalled from there six years ago to hear the burden of the Vatican's foreign relations, one being for the venerable Cardinal Gasparri. On the signing of the armistice the pope sent Mgr. Cerretti on a tour of all the entente countries, and to Holland when the latter hurried over the border, and in France to note the reception accorded President Wilson on his visit there. During the first visit Mgr. Cerretti met President Wilson and arranged for the latter's visit to Rome.

Never Get Over It

"Well, no, there hasn't no special news out my way," replied Gay Johnson, of Rumpus Ridge, Ark., to the inquiry of the white officer of the Tullahoma Town of Liberty. "You see to think while Life Stage got over a two months' attack of the influenza or taking a quart of bone dry liquor, that some fellow bring him out right."

"Ah! that is good," returned the scribe.

"Well, I know. You see, it don't seem like he's ever going to get over the attack of bone-dry liquor."

Not None Case Late the other night on a street car a soldier was going home for the first time. He was happy and proud, and his reason for being proud: There was a wound stripe on his right arm. A man said to him: "Where were you wounded?" The soldier replied: "I was hit in the back with a piece of shell." The man gave a short laugh and said: "A funny place to get hit; which way were you going?" It is needless to say that the soldier hit the man and here is what the soldier said: "If there are any more of

New-York - Day - By - Day

BY O. O. MONTRE

NEW YORK, June 14—A page from the diary of a modern Samuel Pepys: Up bed and gay, singing until the dog howled. I made the cock snore with the increase in wages and my household in great content and my wife, poor wretch, too, in high spirits. It was pretty to hear C. Bridges H. Watson, C. Volgin and G. McManus make snoring remarks at my new cloth top coats, knowing as I did it was their petty jealous nature. Ann J. Weller, the Dutch play actor, came to the rating place and told us some brave tales of the noble days when he trooped with L. Fieds and how they started their famous chalking act.

Through the town afloat, stopping at a chapel to hear some fine music by Italian gentlemen who sing, sweetly. And came upon Dr. de Santos, my old acquaintance, and we had high words about the works of Joseph Conrad. My conclusion being that his novels start well but end feebly. Then to a magazine editor's office and he told me the good news that C. Ade is soon to begin writing his fishes again. Meeting my wife in a great store we had a cup of a Chinese drink called tea and a lady there in hysterics finding her husband with a broken girl.

Home and at my accounts and at the rating place and at the good news that C. Ade is soon to begin writing his fishes again.

There have been three or four Eddy stone lighthouses. Henry Winslow built one that was criticized by engineers as being unsafe. "It will stand the storm," he replied, "and I hope I may be in it when the first and worst gale sweeps down the coast." On the night of the first fierce equinoctial tempest the builder and some workmen went into the lighthouse. Next morning when the people along the shore looked for the lighthouse it was gone. The awful storm had swept everything away and the men had perished.—Boston Post.

For good and evil—for he was a mixture of evil and good—Verelaine possessed all these qualities. Verelaine is always faithful to himself, to the two sides of himself, and he has thus succeeded in reading, as no one else has before, the whole home duplex, the eternal conflict of humanity.—Arthur Symonds.

PASSENGER TRAIN COLLIDES WITH A FREIGHT

CHICAGO, June 14.—Pere Marquette train No. 51 from Grand Rapids to Chicago was wrecked early this morning at the 103rd street crossing in South Chicago. Police reports said 30 passengers were killed. The railroad company said only two were known to have died.

The train, bringing week end parties back from Michigan summer resorts, was reported to have struck a freight train, one day coach and a baggage car being telescoped.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., June 14.—Seven persons were killed in the wreck of the Pere Marquette train at South Chicago today according to reports received in local railroad circles. First reports had placed the dead at ten. The train, according to Pere Marquette officials here was number 10.

HEAVY DAMAGE IN OHIO FROM ELECTRIC STORM

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—A severe electrical storm that caused property damage running into thousands of dollars swept over western and southwestern Ohio late yesterday afternoon. So far as could be learned no one was injured.

In Washington, D. C. a tragedy was averted by half an hour. When the storm struck the grand stand at the baseball park collapsed. Thirty minutes before, the stand had been crowded with visitors to the park. The stand had been entirely emptied before the wind came.

In Cincinnati the storm swept from the northwest and was especially severe in Glendale, Hartwell, Pleasant Ridge, Norwood and neighboring communities north of Cincinnati. A lot of lightning struck electric feed wires leading from Cincinnati to Mount Washington on the bridge over the Little Miami river. The iron work of the bridge became heavily charged and more than 50 automobiles were forced to await arrival of a repair crew before a safe crossing could be made.

Springfield experienced a heavy storm. Trees were uprooted and farm dwellings near the city demolished. Telephone and telegraph service was crippled for several hours. The storm also was felt at Bucyrus and other points.

NEITHER SATISFACTION NOR DISAPPOINTMENT SHOWN BY BRITISH NEWSPAPERS

LONDON, June 14.—Warren G. Harding's personality and record before he was elected president, were the well known here, newspaper comment this morning expressed neither satisfaction nor disappointment with the Republican choice of a presidential candidate.

Several newspapers refer to him as a "dark horse" and infer from earlier reports he represents a compromise. Two or three journals assume the result of the Chicago convention has opened the possibility of the election of a Democrat to the presidency. Much of late has been regarded here as extremely improbable.

Among those taking this view are the London Times and the Daily News. The latter telling the Democrats, "The best they can play is to persuade Herbert Hoover to accept their nomination in spite of everything."

The future of the League of Nations and of British-American relations are points much discussed in the light of the nomination of Mr. Harding. The Morning Post, which is a vocal opponent of the league, says: "Mr. Harding is a politician not an idealist, and may conceivably be

MON DIEU, HERE'S WHERE PRESIDENT OF FRANCE FELL FROM TRAIN IN PAJAMAS

The coach window from which he fell and the spot in country where he landed.

Speaking of historic pictures, how about this one? When President Paul Deschanel of France fell out of a window of his private coach while his train was en route to Mortieron, France, he certainly set a precedent for presidents. Deschanel was attired in his pajamas when he rolled out. No one on board the train knew of the accident for some time. Deschanel was forced to borrow clothes from workers along the track and walk to the next town.

"The vagueness of the Republican platform," the newspaper continues, "leaves plenty of scope for its favorable interpretation in strong and honest hands. We have faith in the American conscience, and if we appeal to it we must come into contact with clean hands."

The Express believes that friendly relations with Great Britain will undoubtedly be part of Mr. Harding's policy.

to the American people who showed no marked liking for being governed by a man known as "the boy from Mount Sinai," and predicts that if the Republicans win "the league will fall to the dusty stage of pious resolutions."

Curiously as to how Mr. Harding interprets Elton Ross's ambiguous worded plank is expressed by the Telegraph, which thinks it will not be surprising "if this ambiguity was deliberately cultivated on the principle that the least said the soonest mended, as it will be much easier to abuse Mr. Wilson's failure than to suggest a satisfactory alternative."

The Times referring to a statement by its Chicago correspondent that the British must be prepared for a thorough readjustment of their relations with the United States and his prediction that the process will not be easy, says that depends in great measure upon ourselves. If we have a straight, clear and honest policy in world affairs, affirmatively based upon those principles which are common to us and Americans, we may have timeous disputes to reach an agreement, but there can be no doubt as to the result.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, Republican, presidential nominee, was back at his desk in his office at the capital today. Accompanied by Mrs. Harding, his secretary, George Christian, and a small group of senators, he arrived here a few minutes after midnight and went directly to his home on Wyoming avenue. While the two Senators of Old City, Pa., sounded a rousing welcome, the senator and his party made their way through the cheering crowd at the station, pausing just long enough for two flashlight photographs to be taken, an incident that was repeated upon his arrival at his home.

Senator Harding told the Associated Press he would remain in Washington about a week. He expected to be busy for a day or two clearing up the business he accumulated as senator, but the coming of Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, will force him immediately into the part assigned to him by the convention. He will confer with Mr. Hays and his political managers, with the idea of getting his campaign under way at once, although formal notification of his nomination will not be received by him until he returns to his home at Marion, Ohio.

Congratulations upon his nomination continued to reach Senator Harding at his office, while at his home Mrs. Harding was the recipient of numerous enthusiastic messages from their personal friends.

Pictures taken when the senator reached his home include Mrs. Harding. Many of the neighbors had remained up to witness the home coming and their greeting was like that given by the crowd at the station. Mrs. McWhorter, the Hardings' neighbor, was in the van of those who rushed forward to welcome them. Her extended hand was grasped by both Senator and Mrs. Harding, while an open smile illumined her face.

The senator thanked those who had gathered to welcome them, but nothing in the nature of a statement was made by him, either here or at the station.

Among those who accompanied the senator from Chicago were Senators Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader; Sumner, of Utah; Pollock, of Washington; Sutherland, of West Virginia; Ball, of Delaware; and French of Maine.

The two Senators, which was chosen to welcome Senator Harding, was in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, and when his presence was called to the attention of those arranging for the reception, it was selected for the honor because of the part played by the Pennsylvania delegation in bringing about the nomination.

The train was two hours late, but the crowd which had gathered at the station listened to the boys practice the airs they later played when the train arrived and waited patiently until the party came through the gates.

Going to his home Senator Harding drove by the White House. On either side of his automobile rode two motorcycle policemen and close behind came another automobile filled with secret service men.

Human Progress Must Be Built On Golden Rule

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—All human progress must be built on the golden rule, Dr. W. O. Thompson said yesterday in his biographical sermon at Ohio State University.

Referring to application of the golden rule in economic relations, he said that at one time it was thought the rule had no place in business. "This belief rapidly is being proved a fallacy," he said.

The human factor is the biggest factor, he said, adding that selfishness in this direction hinders progress in all times and in all forms of war.

May Throw Out Walter Brown's Declaration

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—Whether the petition of Walter F. Brown, Toledo, who filed for the Republican nomination for United States senator without accompanying his papers with the filing fee, will be held legal, may be decided today by secretary of State Smith. Doubt has been cast on the petition by some officials.

Judge Smith said yesterday that he also will consider the petition of Harold C. Smith, Elvira, central for the Republican nomination for secretary of state whom State Finance Johnson of the secretary's office has held must give his complete middle name. Harold C. Smith, Judge Smith's friends claim, was entered to confuse voters.

Predict Colby As Mouthpiece For President

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14.—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, was discussed today as a possible spokesman for President Wilson at the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco. The ticket, headed by Mr. Colby, according to unofficial returns from the city-wide primary announced today by John H. Colby, secretary of the central Democratic committee, won by an overwhelming majority over the socialist Bryan Democratic ticket. The vote for the Colby ticket was 2,968, against 329 for the opposition.

Because of Mr. Colby's relatively short residence in Washington, the opposing delegation made strenuous opposition to the inclusion of his name.

The district delegation, including 12 members with half a vote each, will go to San Francisco unimpaired. He will make an effort to have included in the party a plank for suffrage for the District of Columbia.

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 14.—The opening of the Republican national convention and the improved showing of the local banks at the close of last week's business exerted no perceptible influence over the stock market at the opening of today's session. The undertone was steady, although a few leaders soon became reactionary. Shipping, textiles and rails featured the former issues. Atlantic Gulf, American, Western and Northern Pacific averaging 1 point, gains with United States steel pointed. Mexican petroleum, Republic Iron and Steel, and Rockwell fell as much as 1/2 point. Changes among prominent stock were confined to fractions.

LEADERS PLAN TO GET HARDING CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY AT ONCE

CHICAGO, June 14.—Declaration by Amos Pinchot, member of the committee of 48, that there positively would be a new party presidential candidate in the field, rumors that Senator La Follette would head a ticket as presidential candidate, and announcement that the campaign in behalf of Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential nominee, would be started promptly were the outstanding developments following the Republican national convention.

The statement by Mr. Pinchot, declared that the "Republican party has driven out of representation in its councils the millions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and La Follette and that the new party will represent these voters and present a definite and constructive program."

Reports concerning Senator La Follette's possible candidacy were less clearly defined and in some instances were linked with declarations made in behalf of the committee of 48.

Harry M. Daugherty, pro-convention campaign manager for Senator Harding, began campaigns for the presidential nominee's campaign by requesting the national committee to take "prompt, snappy and energetic action" in placing the merits of the Republican issues before the voters of the country.

Party managers, it was said, will start the campaign soon after the Democratic convention is held and would not wait until Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge are officially notified of their nomination.

With H. Hays, re-elected chairman by the new National Committee, now out of town today, resting after his strenuous days during the convention, the members of the new executive committee of whom seven will be named, will be named without delay by Chairman Hays. A vice chairman of the executive committee, who will be a woman, will be selected at the day.

About the time the party managers began their real activities, the senate committee investigating campaign funds will resume hearings, holding its first session in Chicago, July 7, while the committee has been authorized to extend its investigations. Senator Kenyon, its chairman, said no plans had yet been made to inquire into campaign funds up to election day.

Albanian Leader Is Slain

PARIS, June 14.—Essad Pasha, head of the Albanian delegation in Paris and former provisional president of Albania, was assassinated here today. Three shots were fired at him by an Albanian student, two of which took effect.

Essad Pasha was emerging from the Hotel Continental, in the Rue de Cassini, when he was suddenly confronted by a young man, who later gave the name of Rustem Averi, and said he was an Albanian student. Without uttering a word Rustem fired two shots which struck Essad Pasha in the chest and another shot which went into his back.

He was picked up and taken to his room where he died shortly afterwards. The assassin was arrested by a waiter. He told the police he arrived in Paris on May 31 and declared the crime was not premeditated. He admitted Essad Pasha on the street, whom he held to be responsible for the sufferings of Albania, he said he felt a sudden impulse and fired the shot. Rustem termed Essad "the Albanian dictator."

Will He Make The Top?

Rank Errors Gave Visitors

The Game After Locals Had Apparently Sewed Up Contest

In one of those kind of games, which literary novelists may have written about but never staged only in their mind's eye, the B. and O. team of Chillicothe, top notches in the industrial league of Ohio, ran the local N. and W. club on a blind siding at Millbrook Park, Sunday afternoon and before a crowd of spectators reported took a 10 to 5 game away from them, after the locals had it sewed up and tucked away in the refrigerator.

At the close of the fifth frame the N. and W. boys had the game by the score of 7 to 1 and the fans were deeply enjoying the chagrin of the visitors who were so far up in the air that they could not have been reached by an air craft gun. But they grabbed off three in the sixth and then came back and added six in the seventh, getting ten after two runs were out through some of the most turbulent playing ever staged on the scene.

The visitors were slumping. Mr. Waits delivered far and aft, but the little fellow would have withered the storm had it not been for some rank error support. In fact the N. and W. boys played the poorest game they ever tabulated and showed a reversal of form, which if persisted in will cause them all sorts of trouble in the industrial league, of which they are now leaders.

Mr. Moon pitched the entire game for the visitors and while he was not a bad one to crack, he lightened up in the fifth and came thru on the hit. Dowdy started the game for the locals, but it was quite apparent that he was not in form and after the first he gave way to Waits, who was a beat out for four innings. Then the heat seemed to get him, superinduced by some great spinning on his part and he came in with a bang in the seventh. He was derelict too late, for Carl Whitlatch, star outfielder for the Steel Plant set the visitors back easily in the two innings he worked.

Catcher Hubert, Shortstop Gonde and Second baseman Smith of the locals were far from being at their best dividing the eight errors made. Hubert was sick when he started and did not get any better as the game progressed. His throwing gave the visitors no less than three runs, while Gonde helped them to the same number. Smith pulled some good plays, but two that were not so good. They were usually reliable players, but they were awed, perhaps, by the surround ings. Had they had the visitors at the Seventeenth street yards they would have made the daylight out of them. "Gabe's All Stars" Defeated Zanesville Sunday 9 To 8

Overcoming a lead of 8 to 1 against them, "Gabe's All Stars" eventually won out over the Mark Greys at Zanesville Sunday afternoon before 1800 fans by the score of 9 to 8, showing the locals are game and will fight until the last man is out. Bangham, pitcher of the game for the locals, but retired in the eighth frame. In favor of Eddie Donalds, who made the Zanesville boys back away and who held the one run advantage secure by the All Stars who amassed four runs in the eighth inning. The game was a desperate struggle for the All Stars who looked hopelessly beaten in the early innings, but who finally got going properly and not only wiped out the lead of Zanesville, but forced a tie in the eighth frame. The locals showed considerable class, both at the bat and in the field. The team's splendid reputation had preceded them and they were greeted by the largest crowd of the season and are assured of victory.

Manager William N. Gableman, who accompanied the team, states that the fast pace his club's cardinal reputation and treated them nicely throughout their stay. The club did not get to Zanesville until 2:30 p. m. and had one of the most of a time making connections on their return trip. It was necessary to hold N. & W. passengers on train No. 4 for twenty minutes as the club could make connections at Columbus.

Homebats and Stewart Dills, former Portsmouth players in the Ohio State League, played with Zanesville, and did effective clubbing. The Mark Greys will play at Millbrook Park on Saturday and Sunday, July 10 and 11, and with Gabe and Dills and perhaps Nutter in the visitors, all attendance records will be broken at Millbrook.

Man Assaults Wife, Then Takes Poison; Will Recover

ASHLAND, June 14.—An unsuccessful attempt at suicide by drinking carbolic acid was made by Dan Kenner yesterday. The attempt to kill himself was made by Kenner after he had frightfully injured his wife in an attack growing out of domestic troubles. Kenner is at present in the county jail and his injured wife is at home under the care of a physician.

Mrs. Kenner is in a critical condition at the home of her parents on Fifteenth street. Kenner stabbed her twice in the right breast with a pocket knife, choked her severely and beat her over the head with a large board. The wounds caused by the knife are the most serious and are causing her the most suffering. But it is thought that she will recover. Her throat is a mass of scratches and her face is black and blue from the results of choking. She has one large cut over her left eye and a number of deep cuts on her head.

This attack occurred in the rooms, occupied by the couple, over the Day and Night Bank on Fifteenth and Winchester. Upon examining the room later in the day large pools of blood were found on the floor. With blood also splashed on the walls and smeared over the bed clothes.

Several persons heard Mrs. Kenner scream and cry for help. Officer Patterson was the first on the scene and found Kenner lying gasping on the floor, but his wife had already run out of the building and had gone to the home of her parents. By this time several men had gathered in the room. A doctor and an ambulance were called and Kenner was taken to the King's Daughters' hospital. It is stated he will recover.

Ford And Taxi Collide Near Bridge; Driver Held

When a Ford touring car driven by William J. Haeppard, of Vancouver, and an independent taxi driven by a chauffeur crashed head-on in a collision just west of the Selma Bridge about 8 o'clock Sunday night both machines were badly damaged, but fortunately occupants of either car were not injured.

The careless driving of Haeppard, who was intoxicated, according to the police, was responsible for the accident as he was operating his car on the wrong side of the roadway when it occurred. The police were told by several eye witnesses.

Complaint was made to the police and Haeppard was taken into custody and locked up on a forced charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

The Ford which was occupied by two men and three women was put out of commission in the collision, a front wheel being smashed, axle bent and the front was almost demolished while the front axle of the taxi was twisted and both lights smashed.

SOLDIER LOCKED UP; ARGUMENT ENSUES

Ray Clement was the name given by a soldier arrested at the N. & W. depot by Captain Starnaman and Officer Flowers, at two o'clock Sunday morning and lodged in the city prison, charged with being drunk and disorderly.

According to the police, he was talking about the depot and had abused N. & W. railroad detectives before taken in by the officers. About two hours after his arrest twelve soldiers appeared at police headquarters and demanded his release, declaring that the local police had no right to detain the soldier, whose pass would expire at six o'clock.

Sergeant Frank Emmett, it was stated, ordered the men away after they locked up the entire squad. If they did not leave, they threatened to lock them up.

They left, declaring that they would have Clement released by six o'clock.

Later in the morning four of the soldiers returned to the Police Station and renewed their argument with Sergeant Joe Bonzo. According to them, the soldiers loitered about the alley at the rear of the jail, declaring that they would lure the prison guard, and it was not until he also threatened to lock them up that they left.

Clement remains in the city prison, and will probably have a hearing in Municipal court today.

CONVENTION WAS HARDING'S FROM START, SAYS GOODEN AND JACKSON

Would Be Up to Date. Minnie, five years old, lives in the country. One summer she was taken to visit in town, where she was much interested in the electric lights. The first time the faithful kerosene burner was lighted after her return home she looked at it with evident disfavor, then ran to her father with: "Tapa, let's give our lamps away and get us some gas lights in bottles."

When Ruth Leans on the Horsehide and His Favorite Target in New York

Rube Roth, snapper just after smacking a homer at New York, and view of section of right field grandstand where many land.

Twelve of the first sixteen homers that Mauter Babe Ruth stepped into this season were wall-pops on the Polo grounds, just where the Yankee owners hoped Rube would lace 'em out when they dug down to their pockets for $125,000 iron men to buy him from the Red Sox. The frequency with which Rube slams the ball into the right field grandstand caused the crowd keeper to project the foul line mark from the bottom wall of the stand to the second tier and the roof. An iron pipe railing runs back into the lower tier to help the umpire farther in calling Rube's drives when they drop into the crowd in the stand.

Body Is Recovered HUNTINGTON.—The body of Willie Salter, the seven-year-old son of Mrs. William Salter who was accidentally drowned last Wednesday morning, was found about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon near Greenlawn by members of the Elmer family while in the next to their lot.

Taken To Camp Sherman Officer Al Hinebaugh of the local police force left Monday for Chillicothe with Courtney Hays, an armed deserter from a military camp at Douglas, Arizona.

The soldier was arrested last night by Chief Joseph R. Dierckx. Officer Hinebaugh, between whom and the deserter a feud existed because of the desertion of the soldier, was released.
